OSHA-Compliant Online Respirator Medical Evaluations

RespSafety's online medical evaluations are certified by a licensed health care professional (PLHCP), cover all respirator types, meet OSHA Respiratory Protection Standard 29 CFR 1910.134, and complies with HIPAA data security requirements.

STEP ONE: Sign Up

To create an account on RespSafety, navigate to <https://respsafety.com/sign-up/company>. Begin by entering your name, email phone number and creating a password.

STEP TWO: Enter Company Details

On the next screen, enter the company name. Next select the custom URL which will be used to access the site. Most clients use their company name as the custom URL. Enter the number of evaluations your have purchased, and click "CONTINUE WITH PAYMENT" to continue.

STEP THREE: Add Coupon Code

On the next screen, click the "Have a coupon code?" link and enter the code provided through your Honeywell representative, and click "Apply". You will then be taken to your RespSafety dashboard so that you can start getting your employees cleared for respirator usage. As a client of Honeywell, you do not need to order your credit card information or billing address.
